?: Um, (unintelligible) right now.

?: Okay. You can come in when we're done.

JC: ...Las Vegas, Nevada...

?: Okay.

JC: ...89130.

DJ: And a good phone number for ya?

DJ: Okay. And you guys are both, uh, currently - or you guys were both at the r- uh, Route 90 ni- 91 concert on Sunday night?

JC: Yes.

DJ: Okay. Uh, we'll start [REDACTED] with you. Uh, this way it'll - that way it's easier for the lady when she transcribes it. Uh, we'll just do, like, f- one - one statement at a time.

NC: Mm-hm.

DJ: Uh, so if you just wanna explain to me, like, um, what happened I guess on - on Sunday night if you - whatever you remember or...

NC: Mm-hm.

DJ: ...what you can recall?

NC: Uh, sure. We were listening to [REDACTED] perform. Um, I think it was about four or five songs in and there was a noise to our right maybe, like, what - 20 feet away?

JC: Mm-mm.

NC: And everybody just kept yelling, like, "Oh it's fireworks. Oh it's fireworks." So nobody really thought anything of it.

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: And then I would say just a couple seconds later, um, I fell to the ground and I couldn't feel my arm. So I just kept yelling, "I can't feel my arm. I can't feel my arm. I can't feel my arm." Um, and then my aunt was with me and she was just, like...

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: ..."You're fine. Get up. Jason's performing. What are you doing on the ground?" Like, and then she just saw blood coming from my arm.

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: And then that's when - I think we were with another friend named Joni.

DJ: Uh-huh.

NC: They got down and then within seconds of that, like, the second round of bullets came through and everybody just hit the ground.

?: ...581888.

NC: There was, like, just a bunch of people on top of us - on top me specifically. Um, and then when it stopped we knew we had to get up to get going. And I remember not being able to get up. I remember just telling [REDACTED] like, "Get off me. Get off me. Get off me."

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: But there was people on top of her. So she couldn't get up. But we finally ended up getting up and then running to - the way that the stage was set up, we were on the right-hand side.

DJ: Uh-huh.

NC: Um, there was a bar down the middle. And we were just past, like, the camp- or the light guy. So we ran to, like, where the first nook was 'cause more bullets started showing - shooting again. So we got down. And then when they stopped we got back up and ran to almost, like, the middle...

JC: Right.

NC: ...of the asphalt kind of by where that Sunglass Hut was. And they started shooting again. And I remember I got behind a garbage can. Um, and that was the point we stopped a little longer than we wanted to. My fault. Because I had my phone in my hand and I had a backpack on. So I wanted to just put my phone in my backpack so I didn't have to worry about it.

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: So I put my bag in my left hand and I realized I couldn't use my hand. Um, and that's when my aunt ended up taking my backpack from me. Um, and then it was still the three of us running together. Uh, when the bullets stopped we ran to the porta potty section, um, near the exits off of - I don't know what that road is called.

JC: I think...

NC: It's not...

JC: ...uh, people...

NC: ...Reno.

JC: ...say - keep saying it's Reno. It's not. 'Cause Reno is...

NC: It's not Reno...

JC: ...this way.

NC: ...though.

JC: Reno's this way and we were on a street that...

NC: Yeah.

JC: ...Reno kind of...

NC: It was kind of - it wasn't that straight.

JC: ...veers around the venue.

DJ: Okay.

JC: You know?

DJ: Yeah I know what you're talkin' about.

NC: Like, if Las Vegas Boulevard is here, it's parallel on the other side of the venue.

NC: So we ran...

JC: It's a small little street.

NC: Yeah. It was a little street.

DJ: Right. Okay.

NC: So we ran out there, um, and there was people, like, ducking everywhere. And then there was a bunch of cop cars.

DJ: So you guys were, like, running away from the strip that...

NC: We were running away...

JC: Yeah. We were going towards...

NC: ...from the strip.

JC: ...Hooters.

DJ: Okay.

NC: Mm-hm.

DJ: Okay.

NC: Yeah we just - well when you look at the festival map it says the entrances are on Las Vegas Boulevard. There's two of 'em.

DJ: Yeah.

DJ: The other side.

NC: ...back side...

DJ: Right.

NC: ...of the road. And we had exited - I had exited from there on Friday night.

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: Um, so we exited at that same exit. When we got on that street there was just a bunch of cop cars, um, with their doors open and just, like, I don't even know what you call it but, like, they had their guns out.

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: Um, and there was just a bunch of bodies behind and under the cars that were wounded or sh- like...

JC: Just taking cover.

NC: ...yeah. Taking cover.

DJ: Yeah. No that's okay. You could, uh, you could...

JC: Right.

DJ: ...it - get it - it'd be very confusing later on.

JC: No, I understand.

NC: Understand it. Yeah.

DJ: Yeah.

NC: Um, so we ran across the street and that's when I saw it but she didn't see it. There was a - so by Reno there was a bunch of cop cars. And then closer to where the exit were there was a bunch of cop cars. I'm walking in-between, there's a guy dressed in black holding, like, a giant black rifle in his hand.

DJ: Okay.

NC: And he had his hands up, like, he was, like, surrendering. Um, and everybody just kept yelling, like, "Oh my gosh. That's the shooter," or, "That's one of them. He's surrendering. He's surrendering." Um, I don't know what that was.

DJ: Okay.

NC: Um, it definitely wasn't, like, a police officer or...

DJ: Right.

NC: ...like, SWAT. I mean it might have been. I don't know. Um, so then we ran across Reno to Hooters. Um, we were gonna walk around Hooters but then everybody came from the back of Hooters running saying there was another shooter. Um, and there was a guy directing people to, like, the underground, like, kitchen area of...

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: ...Hooters. And he was, like, "Hey. If you're staying at this hotel come in here. Come in here. Come in here." We weren't staying there but we were going in there.

DJ: Definitely.

NC: Uh...

JC: He didn't have a choice.

NC: Yeah. I'm, like...

DJ: Right. Right.

NC: ..."I'm not staying here." And you can't validate that.

DJ: Right.

NC: Um, so we ran in there. We were a little lost at first 'cause we just didn't know where we were. We ended going left and then ended up in the casino area, um, walked through and just tryin' to find a door that was open because everything was locked.

DJ: Yeah.

NC: And we went to, like, a kitchen restaurant area and somebody was saying, like, "Oh they're, uh, gonna be opening this door soon." So there's a bunch of people waiting there. But we found a door that was open on, like, the left side so we ran out that way. And that put us on - I don't know what that street was called. That's where we got to - almost to Coco's, right?

JC: Tropicana.

NC: Yeah. So we ran out past, uh, Coco's. We tried going into Coco's to see if somebody could drive us to the hospital...

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: ...but the doors were closed.

JC: Like, they probably - they all were not in the kitchen 'cause there were no patrons...

NC: Yeah.

JC: ...and the door was locked and it's not normally locked at that time.

NC: Yeah.

DJ: Okay.

NC: So there was a gas station - there was a bunch of people there just, like, hiding and ducking behind cars at that point too. So we got to the street and we were, like, "We just need to get in a car to get to the hospital." So there was a cab in the left-hand turn lane, um, and we were, like, "Hey can you, like, drive us?" And he just, like, didn't roll down the windows, didn't say anything and just, like, did this.

DJ: Uh-huh. Well...

NC: And so we were - had some choice words to say.

JC: D...

DJ: Exactly. I would too.

NC: Um, and then in that same intersection but in the, like, the right-hand turn lane but not quite in the curve of the lane there's, like, this big stretch limo truck with a guy, like, out the window, like, taking a picture.

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: So we ran up to him and was, like, "Hey, like, we really need to get to the hospital. Can you take us?" And he, like, pointed behind him and was, like, "Oh there's a bunch of ambulances over there," like, "Go walk over there." And, like, she knew, like, those ambulances were probably there to go get the people back who were...

JC: Yeah.

NC: ...in the venue still.

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: Um, so again we had choice words to say to that...

JC: ...Executive airport.

NC: ...um, and we only got maybe, like, I don't know - 30 feet and the limo came back to get us. And we got...

JC: Like, he turned the corner and...

NC: Mm-hm. He turned the corner and was, like, "I'm so sorry. Like, this is the right thing to do." So we both got in the passenger seat. Um, e- she was on the phone with her son who is a corrections officer...

DJ: Okay.

NC: ...with Metro, um, just explaining what was going on because our - the person that you talked to in the hallway...

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: ...so they were taking all those people to Sunrise Hospital.

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: So I was the first one to leave that hospital. They put me in an ambulance and took me to Sunrise. When I got to Sunrise it was just, like, chaos. Like...

DJ: Oh yeah.

NC: ...it was very - a very different experience than the one that I had at that...

JC: Well...

NC: ...hospital.

JC: ...that's 'cause when we got there I put you in a room...

NC: Yeah.

JC: ...and it was chaos everywhere else in the ER.

NC: Yeah.

JC: Uh-huh.

NC: So they just, like, took a chest X-ray, put morphine in and then there - loc- rooms - everything was full. People were just in hallways in stretchers.

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: ...three hours.

JC: Yeah. No...

Child: No.

?: No.

NC: And they couldn't get names of everybody just because there were so many people. So they just had a paper and they just wrote, like, "She had morphine." They had an X-ray. But because they took the X-rays before my registration they couldn't tie it to me so they couldn't diagnose what was the issue. Um, so eventually somebody came over, they did more X-rays, they put me in a sling and I left with my boyfriend, my aunt and [REDACTED] the girl that was down there.

DJ: Okay.

NC: 'Cause she went in the ambulance with me.

DJ: Okay. And then - so you w- you were released from the hospital - Sunrise...

DJ: Mm-hm.

NC: Um, so we ended up coming here - was it yesterday...

DETAILS

We were watching the concert by the small Malibu Beach stand at the back corner of the venue when we heard what sounded like fire crackers and then it got louder and the performer stopped and people started running and getting shot. All the craziness made it hard to tell where the shots were coming from.

DETAILS

I was at RT 91 Concert. I was on the grass turf in front of the stage about 30 yards back. Heard what sounded like fireworks five pops or so. Then another round of pops at that point I knew it was gun fire. Dropped to the ground. People had been shot near us so we ran and out of the venue and hid behind a car. A girl behind us at the car had an obvious head wound from a gunshot. At that point I tried to check on her but another long round of shots rang off and everyone start running and we were trampled. Got my wife and ran until we ended up at a airplane hanger. Until I heard to UNLV.

DETAILS:

Was watching the Jason Aldean concert on the right side of the field (facing the stage). Heard what sounded like gunshots, someone yelled that they were firecrackers. My friend [REDACTED] yelled to get down and everyone around us fell to the ground. The shots continued and I heard someone yell that they were hit and needed a belt. I looked up and saw a guy splattered with blood, finally realized what happened, threw my purse at [REDACTED] because he had been shot in the arm and thought he could use the strap to turn it his arm. Shots kept being fired. People started yelling to run so I got up and started running away from the shots (which were seemed to be coming from the right corner of the stage). Once we started running the shots started again and we dropped to the ground again. I was lying on the ground near the gates in the middle of the field and someone started yelling at me to jump over the fence. I got up to jump over the fence and pushed someone else over before I jumped over. Once over the fence, I lay on the ground again and didn't want to move (thinking I would be safest beside the fence.) A man started yelling at me to move to the other side of the equipment (where the sound equipment was at the middle of the field). I tried to argue and ^{say} I should stay where I was but the man pointed to a body that was bloody and lying on the ground and said if I didn't move that was what was most likely to happen (ie. "do you want to end up like him?") so I ran around to the other side of the equipment stage (the side across from the blues tent and the malibu hut) and tried to hide behind the equipment and scaffolding. There were so many people. Shots were still being fired at that point I couldn't tell where the shots were coming from and thought they might be coming from a drone. At this point I was lying down and could see that people were filling the entire void under the equipment platform. I stayed there for a while - could see someone lying on top of a girl that got hit. Eventually the shots seemed to have stopped for a while and people started running out of the fenced area so I followed towards the blues tent and went out the back and walked over to the Flotek's Hotel.

conducted as part of a continuing investigation involving the incident at the Mandalay Bay Resort and Casino, uh, which occurred on October 1, 2017 under Event# 171001-3519. Uh, [REDACTED] um, could you please try to give us, uh, what you recall from the incident -- where you were at the time and - and what you remember?

PG: Yeah. Um, so I was about 50 meters - 50 to 100 meters away from the stage where Jason Aldean was performing. Uh, he was in about his fourth song of the set and I was with a group of five other girls -- so there's six of us total. They were all standing in front of me. I was behind them, uh, ya know, doing the casual dancing, singing to the performer.

DW: On, uh, as far as the stage were you on the left part of the stage or the right-hand side of the...

PG: The...

DW: Stage?

PG: ...lefthand side of the stage.

DW: So lookin' at the stage you were on the left-hand side?

PG: Yeah.

DW: Okay.

PG: Yeah. So I...

DW: Okay.

GC: The, um, the friends that you were with -- five other friends...

PG: Mm-hm.

GC: ...do you - do you have their names?

PG: Yeah. Uh, [REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] uh, I'm tryin' to remember her last name. I don't remember her last name.

GC: Okay.

PG: Um, but yeah. They were all with me. They were all uninjured, um...

GC: Okay.

PG: ...luckily. So we're in - we're listening to perform. I heard what I thought was firecrackers so I looked around thinking they're in the sky somewhere. Um, and next thing I know the sound replicated again and that's when I realized that I had some sort of pressure on my ribcage, uh, near my right breast. I reached down thinking somebody had spilt their drink on me or something - not really kinda putting two and two together until I realized that my hand was warm and red and that's when it kind of hit me that I was just shot. Um, I immediately fell to the ground. As doing so I called out to my friends -- [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. They immediately turned around, uh, of course in panic were distraught but they fell to the ground with me, started applying pressure, trying to remain calm. D- that point there was already a lot more gunshots being fired off. Um, so a lotta people tried to run and a lot of them tried to run over us but they fell on top of us. And so there was a group - I don't know the number but it was a group of guys and others that pulled everybody off of me and my friends and created a barrier so they weren't gonna, you know, run into me saying, "This person just got shot. This person just got shot." Um, after it kinda cleared up the gentleman and my friends picked me up, still applying pressure, moved me closer towards the, uh, suites that they had on the left side of the stage, um, there at the venue. They put a recycling bin down to barricade myself that much - that, uh, can was also being shot at. They're still trying to apply pressure so they moved me once more to the other side. Um, at that point some gentleman -- I don't know his name -- he was a paramedic on scene. He was enjoying the concert himself. He was shot. He took his belt off, created the tourniquet and continued to help me. Um, so at that point I s- - was starting to feel a little bit of the pain. I think it was more of the adrenaline and shock. I didn't really know what was going on. They then moved me into the middle of the street where we tried finding any car that was taking people or that was left unattended with keys in it. Um, we pulled up to - or a truck pulled up and we attempted to get into that truck but they are already full and they took off. And then another gentleman drove up. His name is [REDACTED] didn't catch his last name. He drove a white, um, Chevy Silverado. And he immediately helped my friends throw me in the back of his truck along with two other victims that were shot. Um, at that point I kinda was understanding what had happened. I kept tryin' to have my friends remain calm. I w- - hadn't lost consciousness so I knew if I was going to I started rattling off all, like, the numbers I had memorized 'cause I lost my phone for them to contact my family members. Um, while we're in the back of the truck on the way to Spring Valley the other two gentlemen that were in the truck with me they're having CPR performed on them. Um, I never looked at them. My friends didn't have me look. Supposedly the gentleman closest to me was shot in the head and the other one was shot in the neck and they both didn't make it when we got to the hospital. Um, so then we got into the hospital. Uh, again I was still conscious. Um, me being t- - well me I was cracking jokes with the nurses, trying just, you know, not really process what had just happened. Um, they immediately got my name, put me in triage and had me wait a little bit because I was one of the more stable victims. They then x-rayed me, gave me pain pills and then sent me in for a CT scan. Um, they found that they had the entry and exit wound from my breast -- right breast. Um, and it - it exited outta my back. Uh, I fractured my eighth and eleventh rib - ribs. There's a small laceration on my lung, er, my liver and part of the fragments from my ribs punctured the sac around my lungs which caused a little bit of bleeding, um, in there. They've been monitoring that ever since. Luckily I didn't have to go into surgery. They immediately just stapled the wound shut and sent me back and sorta just pumped me with meds and tryin' to get me better. Um, and then after I was there for a while they sent me to the ICU and it wasn't until today that I was released from the ICU and, uh, now we're here.

DW: Okay. That's a...

JP: Okay.

PB: After - after the - they closed Nashville that's when I walked over there to, uh, the main stage. Which was, uh, Jake Owen was performing at that time.

JP: Okay.

PB: And, um, he had did, like, a couple - five songs and then he was done. And then Jason Aldean came on.

JP: Okay.

PB: And, um, I was standing next to the Coca-Cola VIP - the suite - the suites that you have right there. I was standing right there so I was, like, right across from Mandalay Bay. So when, um, we heard the first thing we thought they were fireworks. So I had texted and told her that I wanted to leave - that I didn't want to do the fireworks. And she was coming out already - my sister - from the main stage. And then all of a sudden we heard just, uh, the gunshots and I saw people coming towards me. And then, uh, I don't know if you know - there's gates right there for the VIP - they dropped them down. Everybody just dropped 'em and started passing 'em. And, um, Room [REDACTED] Bed [REDACTED] All right [REDACTED] um, like I - like we said earlier, it's gonna be very, uh, informal. Just kinda wanna get a perspective from your perspective.

ZB: Sure.

CH: Uh, where were you at when...

ZB: So.

CH: During the concert.

ZB: Uh, from what I kinda - again, as I said, as it started happening, it was kind of a - a bit of a blur and everything but we were - at the time when I believe it first started, we were on the - kind of - we were up close to the main stage on the...

CH: Okay.

ZB: Kind of the left hand side.

CH: Okay.

ZB: Um...

CH: Left hand side if - like facing the crowd?

ZB: If I'm facing the stage so...

CH: Okay.

ZB: ...right - yeah.

CH: Oh, so like if you're facing the stage?

ZB: Yeah.

ZB: Yeah.

CH: ...which is stage right. Okay.

ZB: Yeah. And, uh, yeah.

CH: All right. Um, you - c- explain what you started like hearing, seeing, smelling.

ZB: Yeah.

CH: Um...

ZB: So, initially it...

CH: What...

ZB: Yeah, initially, it was - and I've heard other people say this too and - and what I - was going through my mind was that it sounded like firecrackers. And - and, uh, could - 'cause I don't know if anyone knew - knew where it was coming from or...

CH: Right.

ZB: You know, what was initially going on and - and, uh, yeah. It just kinda sounded like - just pop, pop, pop over and over again. And it kinda sounded like firecrackers. And then, um, you know, the next thing I know, all of a sudden everybody's screaming and running. And - and, uh, you know, just trying to - trying to find cover. Um, yeah. I mean, people - again, I don't think anyone knew, you know, initially where it was coming from.

CH: Mm-hm.

ZB: What was going on and so, you know, people weren't sure whether there were, you know, people in the - in the crowd with guns or, you know, or what - what exactly was going on, right?

CH: Right. Okay. So you never at any point saw anybody - a shooter or anything? And saw where it was coming from?

ZB: You know what? So, actually though as I started running, I was running towards - I started running towards the - directly towards the Mandalay Bay and I would have been facing exactly where he was because I remember looking up at one point in the commotion and my whole - my whole thing when I started running is I was there with a couple friends and they managed to get out all right and I lost them right away. We - we obviously...

CH: Yeah.

ZB: ...ran in different directions. And what I saw was there was a - I think it was - I wanna say it was over by like one of the lighting set ups or whatnot and I saw it looked like there's a bit of a barricade. And there were some people falling under there. You couldn't really tell. Maybe some of them were injured or - or, uh, or just looking for cover. So, I ran towards that thinking, "Okay, I can get under." You know, under - it looked like you could get kinda under cover there. And as I was running that direction I remember looking up and seeing that the muzzle going - what I - what I suspected was the muzzle going off repeatedly.

CH: Right.

ZB: 'Cause it was - seemed to be timed with - with the sound of the shots

DM: (Unintelligible).

ZB: Yeah.

CH: At what point did you know you got shot?

ZB: Um, so I got to that area where I was trying to get cover...

CH: Right.

ZB: And I remember I - I wanna say I remember at that point that there were a couple people that looked like they were laying there injured. And - and that we were all just kinda trying to huddle in there. And I think I tried to grab a couple people or, you know, or whatnot. And then I felt like I was - I felt like I was covered and then just kind of all of a sudden, I - I - I just felt this searing pain in - in the area...

CH: Okay.

ZB: ...where I was hit and I just - I just knew that...

CH: Okay.

ZB: That I...

CH: So, you felt like you under...

CH: Right.

ZB: That I thought I was, you know, good. And then I - I remember being shocked that I was - that I was hit because I, you know, felt like, okay, I was...

CH: Right.

ZB: Thought I was...

CH: That you were...

ZB: ...in a spot that...

CH: ...fine?

ZB: Yeah.

CH: Okay. How did you get out of that - from that position? How'd you get out of there?

ZB: And to be honest with you, the rest of that is a - is a bit of a blur. I think I...

CH: I understand.

ZB: I retained, um, consciousness the entire time. But I do know that there is - there was a guy that, um, you know, somehow I think him and one other person but he kinda initiated it like, um, pick - realizing where I was hit, that I was bleeding a lot - everything, and I wanna say they dragged me out of there. They carried me outta there. Um, I think to one of the entrances along the strip. Somehow they got me over there. He, I wanna say, um, hailed down a car.

CH: Okay.

ZB: Um, that was - I don't know if it was a random car, if it was a taxi - what it was. Um, was able to hail someone down and basically just started telling the driver what to do - that we needed - we needed his assistance. That I was - that I was hit. Um, and - and at that point, yeah, somehow got me in the car. I remember him telling, um, the driver to go, make a U-turn I think and go against traffic up the strip. And that it, you know - that he could run. Run red lights, do what he needed to do in this situation kind of thing, right?

CH: Right.

ZB: And, uh...

CH: You pretty much can.

ZB: Yeah, so I - I mean, I - I - and you know, again, it's all quite - you know, quite vague and whatnot but, um, but that's kinda what I - what I remember from it. And then somewhere along the way, there was at least one other girl. I remember he was in the - he was in the backseat beside me holding a - he - he was able to tourniquets my leg and, um, at - with my belt.

CH: Bad?

ZB: And whatnot.

CH: Okay.

ZB: And - and - but you know, there was another girl in there, um, that I'm aware of.

CH: Okay.

ZB: And, uh, yeah, and then we just - then the rest of the ride down here is a - is definitely a - a blur.

CH: Yeah...

ZB: We just kinda...

DETAILS Attended the Route 91 concert. At the venue, not long after Jason Aldean started, heard what I thought was firecrackers. The second round of shooting started, again I thought it was firecrackers. More rapid shots rang out & the crowd started dispersing. We ran into the MGM where they usered us to the baggage area.

DETAILS

I was working in vendor booth Hollywood Boulevard inside the Hardest Fest / Route 91 venue when I heard fireworks then immediately realized it was gunfire. My boss and I then ran to the back of the booth pulling racks on us to take cover. Poncetgoers were running into the booth to take cover from the gunfire. After the second round of gunshots, my boss and I ran out of the booth out the back of the venue to Hoties Casino. We took shelter there until 430am.

RA: Little bit more packed on Sunday than it was on Friday and Saturday.

TT: 'Cause that was when the headliners were coming in.

RA: Big time, yeah.

TT: Okay.

RA: Oh, yeah.

TT: All right. So what happened that evening?

RA: Well, we got there, I don't know, maybe about 6:00, 6:30 and grabbed something to eat. And, ah, from there went and grabbed a beer. Went and grabbed our shirts, 'cause we were buying some shirts 'cause of the new - different artists that were playing that day. So we started walking up and we had seen some other friends of mine, um, the night before or Friday night so we- he's like, "We're gonna be pretty much in the same area," so we kind of walked in that area. Went and saw the first performer which was Big & Rich. And, ah, think of course there was a little break between him and Jake Owen. So we're kind of scooting in that area and everything like that and, ah, Jake Owens performed and we knew we had about another half hour before, ah, Jason Aldean came on. So, ah, once he came on, which was around 9:40 I think, somewhere around 9:40. We were up about 30 feet from the stage maybe.

TT: Okay.

RA: From right. Right about the fr- front right area of it.

TT: Okay.

RA: And, ah, sitting there enjoying the music, taking a couple videos sending 'em to my mom and my brother and all that.

TT: Jealous they couldn't be there with you?

RA: Yeah, of course. And, ah, last video I took ended at 10:01. So we're sitting there and Jason is - he's talking and this and that. And next thing I know we're wa- listening to the music and I - I started hearing (simulating the sounds of gunfire).

TT: Okay.

RA: And I'm like, "That's not fireworks."

TT: When you say her who do you mean?

RA: Rosa, my girlfriend.

TT: Okay, Rosa's your girlfriend-

RA: Yes.

TT: Rosa, I'm gonna talk to you in just one moment, okay, but I just wanted to make sure we had it on - on the record of who you are, okay?

?: Okay.

TT: Go ahead.

RA: And I started hearing people screaming and yelling, "Get down..."

TT: Okay.

RA: "...get down." And at that same time I'm looking and I'm seeing - I seen a couple people already fall. So when I grab her we start to go this way a little bit 'cause I was trying to go towards the middle underneath the little aisle area right there where it's kind of blocked over. I just felt it. Right on my side, my back. And I know what a bean bag feels like from the military.

TT: Mm-hm.

And it gives you that kind of like that concussed feeling.

TT: Mm-hm.

RA: And I was like, "Oh, fuck I just got hit with something." And it hit me so bad and knocked me off my balance that my leg wasn't facing like right here it was kind of angled off this way. And I go - I try to pull it and I couldn't even feel it. And I go, "I can't go, I can't go," we fell right in that area kind of like by a little barrier that was right there. And I just told her, "Get down, get down," and we got down, I'm holding her right there next to me and trying to keep her down and - and she was - she was already screaming and yelling. And, ah, I'm holding her down and I can just hear the bullets just (simulating the sounds of gunfire). Just whizzing by. And I'm holding her down and I have my hand over my head just kind of just holding this down a little just thinking when's the next one gonna hit? And it's going and going and she's screaming and yelling and I'm just like, "Fuck," - I was like, "Come on, hurry up, end this, whatever's happening." And there was another guy that was close to the area he - he didn't come over to us until after it stops. It finally stopped after I don't know how many minutes. And - and I'm just like, "Fuck," and he comes by us and he goes, "Are you hit, are you okay," and I said, "Oh, I got hit in the back." I said, "I can't move my leg, I can't feel my leg." And he stayed with us the whole time. Um, he's my - my new best friend. Ah, so we were right there and they were trying to like - everybody's just, it's in a panic. Everybody was going nuts, everybody just going - running everywhere. People are laid out everywhere and all that stuff like that and, ah, he

I - we'll get you out of here." I said, "I need a railing, get a railing from the side over there that's the only way you're gonna be able to move me." I said, "Get a railing from the VIP side over there." They got the railing, they brought it over, they pulled me on there and we all took off to the House of Blues area.

TT: Okay.

RA: 'Cause that's what they said to start taking everybody to the House of Blues area 'cause they had a access out there.

TT: Yeah.

RA: So we get over by the House of Blues area and I'm still kind of - I'm in it still but I'm just like, man, I sh- my breath is getting shorter. And he's all - he just keeps - my new friend [REDACTED] ah, he's just telling me, "Keep taking breaths, keep your eyes open, keep your eyes open." And, ah, there was a lady there who was taking somebody else to the hospital already who had a neck wound. And her dad or her uncle whoever was with them, ah, what was her name Michelle?

?: The girl that took us, yeah?

TT: You guys came straight here?

RA: Straight here.

TT: Okay. Um, what are the nature of your injuries right now?

RA: Ah, they took out most of the bullet from my spine area. I still have two fragments in up near the lung area. Um, they had to put in, I had a fractured vertebrae. They had to put in two screws there. Three fractured ribs. And, ah, and then I had the - of course the chest tube in here that they just were able to take out today.

TT: Okay. Now when you say we and our - who is that?

AA: Um, my husband, um, myself, and we have some cousins and friends who were also staying with us and attending.

TT: Okay.

AA: Yeah. We've, um, we've done several concerts together back in California and, um, we saw the news and, you know, uh, advertisements for this one.

TT: Okay. And then you - you said your husband, that was the gentleman that was here?

AA: Yes.

TT: And then what is his last name?

AA: Uh, same - [REDACTED] His name is [REDACTED]

TT: Okay. And then so what time did you go to the concert on the 1st?

AA: The first night I believe we left our hotel - we had plans to leave our hotel about maybe 4:00 or 5:00. I know that it was the earliest of the three days that we attended.

TT: Okay.

AA: Yeah. The other nights we decided to attend, um, closer to about the 6:00 or 7 o'clock hour.

TT: Okay. Yeah. 'Cause you wanted to do a little more in Vegas to...

AA: Well...

TT: ...go to dinner.

AA: ...because we looked at the lineup.

TT: Oh yeah.

AA: We kinda judged which...

TT: Who you wanna see and who you don't.

AA: Yeah. Which performance we had seen already, which ones we wanted to give a shot to. But I remember that Jake Wright - Jake White - Drake White, sorry, uh, was AA: We got there in time enough before he went on just to hang out a little. See - well so, like, light out. You know?

TT: Mm-hm.

AA: It could be kinda miss something once the - once the sun goes down. You kinda forget to go to, you know, everything that the venue has to offer.

TT: Okay. Um, so you said you got there around 5:00, right?

AA: Mm-hm.

TT: Okay.

AA: Yeah.

TT: Now when you got there, you - you came in what entrance?

AA: Um, I think it was on the main strip entrance that - I'm guessin' that's the strip, um, because there was the Arco.

TT: Okay.

AA: Yeah. And so our Uber dropped us off at the Arco on the first night and we just proceeded to use the lead through...

AA: Um, we kinda meandered around to the front area. They, um, did our bag checks, you know, and our ID checks and then, um, several of us purchased alcohol right away. Several of us, uh, kinda used the bathroom. We all kinda managed to stay together, you know? Hey, I'm gonna go here. Wait for me here. But, then we stayed, um, they had a - a central island in the middle of the, uh, food vendors they had a - a central, like, strip for people to sit down and eat their - their meal so we - we also stayed around there. TT: Okay.

AA: We watched a little bit of, um, Brothers Osborne at 6:40.

TT: Okay.

AA: 'Cause there was a song I - I knew I wanted to catch from them.

TT: Okay.

AA: So, um, so yeah. So about - let's see - if he started at 7:20 - 'bout 7 o'clock I said, "Okay. I'm gonna go get a spot up close to see Drake White." And so only my husband and I went off. I think that s- other members of our party had also, you know, okay we're gonna go get something here and, um, I think it was my cousin [REDACTED] that stayed watching the rest of Brothers Osborne.

TT: Okay. All right. So you kinda made your way over there and then...

AA: Mm-hm.

TT: ...he started playing.

AA: Yeah. And we got up really close. Several - I mean, in a good way there wasn't many people who were interested in seeing him so we were able to get a really good show and good position...

AA: Mm-hm.

TT: This entire time did you see anything outta place or anything suspicious...

AA: No.

TT: ...or anything at all?

AA: No.

TT: Okay.

AA: I will say, um, and I don't know if this is kinda going too far ahead - ahead but the, um, I did mention as we came in, you know, that the security was very, uh, not as strict as I - I've been to.

TT: So the security was pretty lax.

AA: The security was, uh, yeah - pretty lax and not as - as, um, as strict as I've been used to. We had - like I said, we attend several concerts, you know, uh, throughout the years and, uh, I compared it a lot to the Coachella or the Stagecoach back home in [REDACTED] and there's no comparison in the amount of, um, of, uh, what was I saying (unintelligible) security...

No, you're good ma'am just by the looks of - sure I had short shorts on and a tank top so perhaps, you know, okay she's not concealing much but what if I was, you know? And others did get patted and others - some didn't. One of my girlfriends said, "Yeah. I got patted a little with the back of the hand." You know? And in comparison, to Stagecoach they - they'll get a female, uh, security agents to pat you down and - and thoroughly. You know? And they apologize and say we gotta do it and they do whereas this one - it was nothing really, um, I didn't think...

TT: Nothing comparable?

TT: Okay.

AA: So you see a lot more belligerent people...

TT: Yeah.

AA: ...and arguments with just people. You know? Whereas here it seemed very low key and...

TT: Yeah.

AA: It was a great show. We got up - we got further up as people started leaving because we were kinda, like, why are so many people leaving. It's Eric Church. You know? We love him. And - but people were leaving which allowed us more opportunity to get closer and closer...

husband, "Oh my God I'm shot - oh my God I'm shot." And he was like, "You're shot - you're shot." It even took him and my cousin a few, you know, cries to - to hear that I'm telling them I'm shot. I know I'm shot. Like...

TT: Mm-hm.

AA: ...this is what it must be even though I couldn't look and see 'cause I was face down this way. My cousin [REDACTED] was somewhat on my head and his face was - was here with me. I remember feeling his face and hat. And then I felt my husband kind of, like, on my - my hip and waist. And he says that he - he recalls seeing the - the - the gush of blood which would make sense 'cause like I said, he was here at my hip and so he would - he would have seen the - the gush. You know?

TT: When you were layin' on the ground were you layin' on your stomach? Were you layin' on your back?

AA: Kind of like on my left side.

TT: Okay.

AA: Here on my side and kinda curled at the same time.

TT: Okay.

AA: Um, which is probably why it got me in - in that area 'cause that was the - kinda the only open, you know, section was by - or exposed section of my body.

TT: Okay. So you started yellin' out that you were shot...

AA: This entire time I'm hearing rapid gunfire - rapid gunfire and I - I kept praying why aren't they leaving? I - I swear I - I've never been around guns very often. You know? Maybe one or two old, you know, for more for look than for anything else. Um, but he, uh, but I've never been around a semiautomatic rifle type of gun.

TT: Okay.

AA: But I coulda sworn it sounded like they were within feet of us. It sounded so loud and close I was deathly afraid that they would - that they could've easily shot down at us that we were within feet of them.

TT: Mm-hm.

AA: That's how it terrifiably felt. You know? And, um, I kept praying please let them leave already. Why aren't they walking and leaving? Why aren't they, you know, shooting and then escaping? Like, why are they just standing? And just sinking in, like, oh my goodness. They're - they're shooting to kill us all. They're shoot- we're gonna die. And I remember saying we're gonna die. There was, um, a lady at that point also - at some point also that came by asking where's my daughter and my - my sister. My sister has my daughter. I can't find them - I can't find them. I remember my cousin [REDACTED] saying, "They're safe. Just get down. I'm sure she's - she's got her." You know? And, "Get down - get down with us." She was frantic and I believe at one point I felt her presence here. So I remember looking up and again forgive me 'cause a loss of time, you know, it either happened so long or it happened all within minutes.

I'm not sure. But I remember looking up and I remember noticing that there was, like, bleachers or mat-metal building structure, um, to the left - a tall white one.

TT: Uh-huh.

AA: And the bottom portion was silver bleachers and I remember telling my husband we have to make it to those bleachers. I felt like that was the closest coverage. To our right was the, um, alcohol vendors and I didn't think that that was where we wanted to go especially because I had associated the sounds with that side.

TT: Okay.

AA: So, um, our closest route to safety I felt like was those bleachers. And I remember at one point they just decided okay we're gonna run. Can you run? I said, "I can't run. You're gonna have to help me." And he said, "I - I can't carry you the whole way. You need to try and run." So he put - I put my arm around [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] tried, like, lifting my - my left leg and he's tryin' to run, like, backwards and I'm screaming 'cause it's actually hurting for him to carry me and I'm trying to somehow walk on this leg. You know, hop along. I - we make it about 10, 15 steps, we stumble 'cause I - I just dropped them with me. Um, get up and we're about now five steps away. So we step - step - step again and then we get under the, um, silver, metal bleachers. I remember tryin' to crawl and I said is there any way you can just push me - just push me. And, um, he says no. I can't 'cause there - there was, like, little to no room. He says I - I can push you with my shoulder but he also wanted to keep, um, pressure on my wound. So he was behind me keepin' pressure on my left leg while I was in front of him. So it was up to me to bear crawl my way through or you know what they call army crawl or...

TT: Mm-hm.

AA: ... marine crawl. I don't know.

TT: And that's how you got that scratches on your...

AA: That's how I got through. Yeah. That's how I got these scratches here and some here and, um, not much here but yeah. (Unintelligible). So we make it out and there's a couple - a man and a woman and I say please pull me out of here. You have to pull me. And I forget if they pulled me straight on or if - I feel like I turned onto my back and they pulled me out.

TT: Pulled you out that way?

AA: Yeah. They pulled me out that way. And then continued more chaos. I don't remember a fence or I don't remember a gate because for the majority of the night I remained on my back looking up and people would come and, you know, talk to me and as they would move me from area to area which was just a - a chaotic, you know, uh, time for everybody just trying to help and rescue and I - I lose order - I lose track of order and the events that occurred but I - I'm guessin' it's about three different stops and locations that we were sent to and they - they shuttled me from one place - you know, carried me from one place to another. Um, I f- I remember that our first stop we were - we were at - there was rocks under my neck and a beautiful lady - a young girl says, you know, you're gonna be okay. And she talks to me. She's like, look at me, honey. And, you know, tryin' to comfort me and I'm lying there thinking oh my gosh I can't fall asleep but I'm tired but I hurts. You know? And she's telling me not to sleep and so of course I'm, like, stay awake, like you have to stay awake. You know? I remember saying [REDACTED] - [REDACTED] for my kid's names. And but I - I talked with her. I was like - she says, you know you have extensions. You look beautiful and I said yes thank you. She said she's a hairstylist and I said okay thank you. You know? And I remember hearing conversations about - while that's going on I remember hearing conversation about a truck. I told my husband don't you remember the man said I'm gonna pull up my red truck and get you guys' butt in here. I'm gonna go get my red truck and I'm gonna pull in just get in the back and let's go. And I remember saying - thinking okay as soon as he gets here we're gonna go. Well for some reason we moved. I don't know if somebody told us it wasn't safe there or to hide for coverage somewhere else. Well we moved before the truck - red truck even got there. We got to another location. I feel like I saw a red truck and I kept thinking why aren't they putting me in the red truck? And then we moved again. And then we moved behind, like, a car and there was talk about an ambulance and I could hear and feel like, okay the ambulance is here. That was fast. And I remember thinking to myself, how did they get here this fast. Okay. They're here though. Um, they're not gonna have enough room for me. Like, they're gonna be packed. And we didn't get in that ambulance and - and then a - another point they also put me into a trash can - an empty trash can, like, the type that is long - long like this bed size almost. And it's got that, like, slope at the front.

TT: Mm-hm.

AA: So they slide me in and they say it's gonna be easier for us to carry you and they wheeled me and carried me in that. And so even then I'm only seeing, like - never am I really able to look around or think to. You know? Then at some point they slide me out and they said okay we're gonna slide you out - we're gonna slide you out. Um, okay. So they slid me out and also I forgot to mention that at some of those points gentlemen took off their shirts and wrapped - and made tourniquet around my leg. Um, there was one man I recall saying I'm a firefighter, one - one, um, one man I recall saying, um, I'm a nurse, one saying that he was, like, a Marine or - or I think he said he was a Marine. So I'm - I'm guessin' that because with their collected, you know, knowledge, they were able to - yeah - yeah - okay, uh, place those tourniquets, two shirts. In the end I remember I had two shirts and one belt and I think my husband will know more about when and where they put those on 'cause he was more present in - in helping me where I was just, like, in please don't die, stay awake, you know? Fight through this type of - of mental state. Um, so then the last stop we were at - last, you know, moment I remember is we - I look over and there's a white car 'cause I'm thinkin' why aren't they putting me in a car? Why aren't they - why didn't I get in that ambulance? Why - why? You know? Why am I not leaving yet? Please - please. And so I remember somebody stopping a white car. I can't tell you a model or - or make but a white car with dark windows. Uh, somebody I think it was a female banged on the door and said you have to take her - you have to take her. And, um, I don't know if he hesi- I don't know what his reaction was but he took us.

He - we got in the back of his car. Uh, somebody pull- came around the pass- the back passenger side. My husband carried my - my bottom half and they kinda shoved me, you know, one man pulling me from the back side and him pushin' me from - from my bottom side and, um, pushing me in. They - I said slam the door - shut the door - shut the door so that I could, like, lean on it. My husband remained with me, um, in the back seat behind his - he was behind the driver and my cousin got into the, um, passenger side. We drive. His name is [REDACTED] and he - well I don't know if it's my husband or - or my cousin who start, you know, who are you, sir. You know? Thank you so much. Please take us and it seemed like he didn't know where he was going because my cousin [REDACTED] was on the phone with 911 saying, "My cousin's been shot. We need to know where's the closest hospital. We're in a car." And I don't know what the confusion was or what but at some point, they were like, we're - okay we're gonna pull into the gas station. They're gonna send an ambulance to us. So we did and I remember the driver getting out to try and help waive down, my cousin getting out and my husband stayed with me. And then I hear them coming back and - and I'm, like, aware. I'm, like, okay we're gonna wait here you know? And we're gonna wait here for this ambulance. How long is this ambulance - is the ambulance down the street? Is he around the corner? Is that why we stopped? How does this make sense? So they get back into the car and they follow and ambulance and at that point [REDACTED] says, "I'm just gonna go. I'm just gonna go and follow the ambulance. I don't care how fast I'm going." You know? And I could feel the speed even picked up - his - his speed picked up. And I thought

TT: Mm-hm.

AA: ...and - and so. He made a joke of this hey just so you know this is the same hospital where I came. And so oh great. It's not you it's me. And I remember [REDACTED] kinda stalling the car and somebody told him okay go - go and then just go all the way in. He said oh okay. And so then they - like, [REDACTED] had opened the door but then he closed it 'cause he thought, like, we were gonna get out and then we closed it. And then so then we drive up to the, um, to the doors of the emergency room. Again, I don't really look up to see or look around, I mean, to see and I'm still just looking up and at that point I'm put on a gurney. I don't even remember being wheeled. You know? I don't know if I blacked out. I don't know if I just wasn't cognizant at that point. But I was wheeled in and was laying on - I was on my stomach - laying on my stomach and - on a gurney and I remember saying, um, it hurts - it hurts. Like, I didn't wanna be loud and I didn't wanna call too much attention because I was seeing women and hearing, you know, men and women screaming in agony and I was seeing so much more blood and my pain was still there but it wasn't as intense and I kept tryin' to tell myself okay you've got - I knew that the wraps were there and I said, "Okay. Maybe I'm okay. Maybe that's why they're not paying attention to me." And so I was starting to be quiet and I thought, "Okay. Let me try to make some noise. Let me try to talk and - and announce that I am in pain. Maybe they don't know that I'm in pain." So I start staying there and I start laying there and I don't - again I'm not aware of time. I couldn't tell you what hour it was. Um, I had my fanny pack on still. I had a fanny pack with my cell phone on but it didn't click to me yet to register to, like, take out my phone and check or take out my phone and take a picture of what's going on or call somebody. Um, so I'm laying there, I start to announce to whoever I can, "It hurts. Please. It hurts - please it hurts." Um, I get, like, stickers on me, bands on me, people writing on my back, they'd stop and check in and say somethin' like, uh, can you move your toes? Yes. Can you feel when I p- put pressure here? Yes. You know? Can you hear me? Can you see me? Yes - yes. Okay. And they'd go on. And so with those signs I interpreted it as okay I must be okay - I must not be life threatening. So I c- it started to calm me and I kinda just dealt with the - with the pain. You know? And thought okay you can take this pain. You know? You can - you're not a priority. If they've decided that you - you don't need to be rushed somewhere then just trust their judgment. You know?

TT: Okay. So at that time you're at the hospital and they were takin' care of you?

AA: I'm - I'm in a hallway.

TT: Yeah.

AA: And there's tons of people in the hallway. I remember looking up kinda flipping back and forth and I see certain people - I see people in chairs with, like, minor - even more minor wounds, um, and they were just kinda looking at me. I saw a man fully naked with a towel in front of him talking and vibrant, you know? And - and, uh, obviously upset, I mean, but he was talkative and sitting upright and I can't believe what is happening - bare naked - naked completely with no shoes.

TT: Mm-hm.

AA: Um, but yeah. That's what I recall from being there. At some point they give me medicine. Some point - and I kept asking for water. Can I please have water - can I please have water now - now - now? And then, uh, at some point they finally gave me my first shot of morphine for the night. I said thank you. That's what I've been asking for and then I'm wheeled back into the hallway but now - now there's less people and I had - and that's when I - it occurred to me take out your phone. I start looking at my phone and I'm thinking what am I gonna look for. Am I gonna be on Instagram right now? Am I gonna be on social media? No. I take out my phone and I record. I - I put a picture of myself. I mean, I - I turned the camera to myself and I turned around to others and I said this hallway was full now I feel like I'm one of the last ones. Then at that point I start calling - well and then it occurred to me okay call [REDACTED] call [REDACTED]. Um, they were separated. [REDACTED] told me that they were separated.

[REDACTED] was put into, like, family waiting room and [REDACTED] for some reason was kept in, like, the auditorium or vice versa. Um, so yeah. Then I asked - I'm there in the hallway and I hear that your waiting for a C- uh, for a CAT scan. Okay. I'm waiting for a CAT scan and the pain has now gone away so now I'm collected and laying there. You know? One of the doctors had removed all my clothes. He finally said okay we're gonna remove all this. I said go for it. I don't care. Um, made some jokes about it and I think at that point I'm starting to collect myself and regain that, you know, trust and faith that I'll be okay. I - I've made it this far. I trust all their judgments. I think that I'm gonna be okay. You know? Based on their reactions I think I'm okay.

TT: Absolutely. Um, now did they tell you what the bullet went through or...

AA: At no point did they tell me, um...

TT: I mean, do you know...

AA: ...there was a exit one. No. There - there is no exit wound. The bullet - after my x-rays - yeah, I had x-rays and a CAT scan. But, um, I remember, uh, they never discussed with me that it left my body.

TT: Okay.

AA: ...and that it's in a tough position to get out. They wouldn't wanna go into that area, um, next to, like, my tailbone area. So they're...

TT: They're just, like...

AA: Mm-hm. They're saying, you know, if it's not causing any internal damage which from the scans and x-rays it's not so we'd rather just leave it untouched.

TT: All right. Is there anything else you can think about the shooting itself that would give you any - any reason, I mean, did you - did you actually see where the shots were coming from...

AA: No.

TT: ...that you remember?

AA: I felt like they were to my right.

TT: Okay.

AA: So now it also makes sense that if he was to our right - he was at that Mandalan Bay then - or Mandalay Bay - he - then it makes sense why those shots seemed to me from, um, predominantly, uh, made to the right of - of - of my body. Um, however, when we're going under the - the bleachers we still were hearing shots being fired then at the bleachers. We could hear bleachers, uh, shots on the bleachers.

And from reports that I've heard, you know, and again which is me just making up notions is that he started shooting forward and then back but I don't - I don't know. But that's just my concocted imagination that perhaps he started shooting down forward and then, you know - so from his right to left.

TT: Okay.

AA: But that's just my weird...

TT: All right. But otherwise you don't remember...

AA: No. Nothing was, you know, odd or different. I've been to several concerts. This one seemed smaller. This one seemed low-key. You know? I've been to some in Arizona and even those were wilder. You know? And - and people's behavior's and the acts and the vendors. This one I thought oh this is a small v- even the number of people - 25,000, you know?

TT: Mm-hm.
